

MASS CASUALTY AND MORE

Presents:

Emergency Preparedness Conference

Date:

February 26, 2018

Time:

8:00 – 4:00

Location:

Granite Links Golf Course
Quincy, Ma.

<https://www.granitelinksgolfclub.com>

Registration:

Email: Name, Organization and Email address to:

PMcGovern@southshorehealth.org

Call: 781-624-8409

Conference Sponsors:

Metro Regional Preparedness
Coalition through a contract with Cambridge Health Alliance.

Funding for this conference was made possible
(in whole or in part) by the Center for Disease Control and Prevention and/or the Assistant Secretary for Preparedness and Response.

The view expressed in written conference materials or publications and by speakers and moderators do not necessarily reflect the official policies of the Department of Health and Human Services, nor does the mention of trade names, commercial practices, or organizations imply endorsement by the U.S. Government

Conference Agenda and Presentations
8:00 - 8:30	Registration Continental Breakfast
8:30 - 8:45	Welcome William W. Tollefsen, MD., MSc., MBA., FAEMS Medical Director: Emergency Medical Services Department of Emergency Medicine South Shore Hospital
8:45 - 10:00	"Lessons Learned" The Pulse Nightclub Shooting Chris Hunter, MD, PhD EMS Medical Director Orlando Fire Department
10:00 - 11:00	Urban Terrorism: Lessons Learned from Paris/Boston/Brussels Eric Goralnick, MD, MS Medical Director, Emergency Preparedness and Access Center, Brigham and Women's Hospital Boston.
11:15 - 11:45	Metro Regional Preparedness Coalition Ari Winograd, EMT Planning and Operations Coordinator Metro Regional Preparedness Coalition
11:45 - 13:15	Buffet Lunch Skills Stations and Information Sharing Exhibits
13:20 - 14:20	Is TXA a Lifesaving Drug That's Too Cheap to Bother Using? Matt Bivens, MD, EMS Medical Director, St. Luke's Hospital, New Bedford
14:45 - 15:45	Human Trafficking is a Public Health Issue Hanni Stocklosa MD, MPH Executive Director of HEAL Trafficking. Emergency Physician Brigham and Women's Hospital
15:45 - 16:00	Closing Remarks - Evaluations William W. Tollefsen, MD., MSc., MBA., FAEMS

7 hours of Continuing Education for all levels of EMS.

Nursing and Physician CEU's pending.
Registration is limited to 200
Attendees may be wait listed.